

ATTENTION!

Junior Cadet Week Training Highlights

- Physical training
- Unarmed self-defense
- Alcohol impairment countermeasures
- Identifying distracted or impaired drivers
- Use of aircraft in law enforcement
- Criminal laws - officer violator contacts
- Radar/Laser training
- Weapons familiarization
- Water safety

JUNIOR CADET WEEK!

June 25 - June 29, 2023

Ohio State Highway Patrol Academy

Sponsored by the Ohio State Highway Patrol, the Highway Patrol Auxiliary, the American Legion, and the American Legion Auxiliary

Congratulations! Your selection to attend American Legion Buckeye Boys State or Buckeye Girls State qualifies you to compete for an all-expense paid program at the Ohio State Highway Patrol Academy. There you will learn the training, duties, and responsibilities of an Ohio State Highway Patrol Trooper. It's the...

Chance of a Lifetime

Junior Cadet Week provides young men and young women insight into the challenges faced by law enforcement officers. It is an opportunity to spend time at the Patrol Academy experiencing the same training as an Ohio State Highway Patrol Trooper.

Junior Cadet Week is available only to young men and women attending

American Legion Buckeye Boys State and Buckeye Girls State in the current year and to the children of Ohio State Highway Patrol employees who will be seniors in the upcoming school year.

If you have an interest in a future career in law enforcement, Junior Cadet Week is seeking you!

Junior Cadet Week will be conducted at the Ohio State Highway Patrol Training Academy in Columbus, June 25 - June 29, 2023.

Junior Cadet Week is staffed by Ohio State Highway Patrol instructors. Facilities and equipment are provided as a public service. Candidates should be physically fit and able to participate in the whole program.

In order to qualify for consideration, you must exercise all of your responsibilities as a citizen of American Legion Buckeye Boys State or Buckeye Girls State and submit a written application available at each program.

Applicant interviews will be held at Boys State and Girls State.

The Junior Cadet Week is a program of the Ohio State Highway Patrol in partnership with the Ohio State Highway Patrol Auxiliary, American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary.

If you are selected for Junior Cadet Week, you must provide your own transportation to the Ohio State Highway Patrol Academy, which is located at 740 East 17th Avenue in Columbus. Cadet Week participants are to report to the Academy at 7:00 p.m. on Sunday, June 25, and will graduate at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, June 29 in ceremonies open to family and friends.

Applications for Junior Cadet Week

Application forms for Junior Cadet Week will be available at Buckeye Boys State and Buckeye Girls State from officers of the Ohio State Highway Patrol serving on the staff of each program.

The officers of the State Highway Patrol and the staffs of Buckeye Boys State and Buckeye Girls State will provide announcements at each program about the dates, times, and sites to obtain applications and schedule interviews.

Those individuals selected to attend Junior Cadet Week will be announced at Buckeye Boys State and Buckeye Girls State.

